Not always a peace-bringer

Jesus talks so much about reconciliation, forgiveness and love, that we may wonder about all his words of division.

He says he will not always bring peace, but because of him people will be divided, even families. Where now is the calm I the storm, or the offer of rest and refreshment.

We know that we can be divided about what is right and just. Families and societies can be divided about the cares of life, the cares of marriage, the care of the young, the care of the poor.

In the face of poverty and hunger, of abuse and violence, the word of Jesus is divisive, for it highlights the rights of all, born and unborn, rich and poor, young and old, sick and well, to the gifts of the earth, the gifts of wealth, and the care of society. While we love all, we want justice for all, and our following of Jesus may bring division.

May we be encouraged to do what is right, strong to take the side of God, and open to reconciliation and compassion for all.

R.I.P. Teddy Carthy, Tullow & Jack Cash, Ardristan, Tullow who died recently.
