TULLOW, GRANGE AND ARDATTIN PARISH NEWSLETTER

4th October, 2020

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Ordination to the Diaconate

The Ordination to the Diaconate of Vincent Crowley takes place this Sunday afternoon in The Church of The Most Holy Rosary, Tullow by Bishop Denis Nulty. It's a historic occasion for the Parish in that it's the first time an Ordination to the Diaconate has taken place in the parish itself. In the past, diaconate was the penultimate step towards priesthood and the ceremony would have taken place in the Seminary. Vincent however is being ordained to the permanent diaconate.

Vincent has engaged in the Diaconate Preparatory Programme for the last three years and has worked in the parish as part of that programme. He has got to know many people and we hope that he will be appointed to Tullow to exercise the diaconate ministry.

We congratulate him on this significant day in his life. We thank him for the generosity he has shown with his talents and we wish him many years in ministry. We congratulate his wife Celia and his family.

PLEASE PRAY FOR Sr. Mary Dalton, Delany Court who died recently.
