TULLOW, GRANGE AND ARDATTIN PARISH NEWSLETTER

28th March, 2021

PALM SUNDAY

Holy Week in Lockdown

Many people are disappointed that Covid Restrictions prevent us from celebrating the Easter Ceremonies again this year. We must once again rely on the webcam.

As Christians we believe the testimony of the apostles that they saw Jesus three days after his death - that God had destroyed death through him. Christians therefore are people of hope and optimism. The Pandemic can at times pull us into a world of negativity. Easter celebrates the power and the love of God. We might find it helpful this Holy Week to see Good Friday as the embodiment of human suffering in the sufferings of Jesus and to see Easter as the guarantee of God's powerful presence with us.

I invite you to join in the Easter Ceremonies from your home. Let us be united as a parish as we remember and celebrate God's love for all of humanity and God's presence with all who are suffering and finding this time difficult.

Blessings for Holy week and Easter.

Fr. Brian.
