Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
To be - for this he created all;
the world's created things have health in them,
in them no fatal poison can be found,
and Hades holds no power on earth;
for virtue is undying.
Yet God did make man and woman imperishable,
he made them in the image of his own nature;
it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world,
as those who are his partners will discover.*
