Our First reading and Gospel today emphasise the need to be prepared to Listen and to learn what Jesus wants from us.

First Reading

In our first reading Abram is listening to God who is telling him to leave his current location and follow God's directions. Abram agrees :- So Abram went as the Lord told him.

Peter in our Gospel

Saint Peter is a very interesting character. He is accident prone. He is erratic. He blurts out words in an unthinking fashion. Jesus reprimands him on a number of occasions. Yet Peter is one of the inner circle who Jesus brings up Mount Tabor. Later on this humble, blundering man is the person Jesus entrusts his Church to.

The Transfiguration

Jesus brings three Apostles, Peter, James and John, up on Mount Tabor and There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; The Apostles are given a glimpse of heaven.

Peter writes about the experience in his second letter.

◆ He affirms that his account of the life of Jesus is not a fable - is not just a story "...For we did not follow cleverly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." Peter bases his belief in Jesus on the fact that at the Transfiguration he and his friends "were eyewitnesses to his (Jesus') Majesty"

Peter could have stayed at the foot of Mount Tabor and not climbed with Jesus. Instead he put his trust in Jesus and became part of The Transfiguration which in turn became a key element in the faith of Saint Peter. Lord:-

- ◆ Give us the wisdom and courage to climb mountains with you so that our faith and relationship can deepen.
- ◆ Let us believe the Transfiguration is a glimpse of the promised life to come and help us in our efforts to attain that life.
